Dragon Breath Theatre and Nottingham Lakeside Arts present
the award winning play for families aged 8+

JUMPING ON MY SHADOW

by Peter Rumney  Director Rosamunde Hutt  Designer Nettie Scriven

A funny, moving, ghost story about refuge, asylum,
and who we think we are Jumping on my Shadow
by Peter Rumney

Mr Miah Oliver Kaderbhai
Grandma Becky Matter
Anna Narisha Lawson
Josip Mitchell Ndema

Rosamunde Hutt
Nettie Scriven
Hettie Malcomson with Rohan Kriwacek
Richard Statham
Solomon Rumney Scriven
Alex Stein
Alistair ‘Bungo’ Richardson Laurens
Moby Renshaw
Vicky Johnson
Charlotte Dearman

Nicole Grant
Tony Judge
Ade Towell
Pamela Raith
Joy Buttress

Samantha Whelan (Platform Thirty1)
Craig Encer
Producers

Dragon Breath Theatre would like to thank and acknowledge the following for their contributions:

Theatre Centre 1999 to 2002: Noel Greg (Dramaturg), Joyoti Grech (Writer’s Consultant), Rosamunde Hutt and the original Theatre Centre JOMS team; Natalie Wilson of Theatre Centre; Joyoti Grech and Nora O. Stillman for previous Education Resources; Shona Powell, Rachel Feneley, Jodie Clifford, Ruth Lewis Jones, Chris Flux, Shamila Chady, Ellie Ball, Steve Clarke and all the Lakeside team for the collaboration; Adel Al-Salloum, Gemma Kiddy, Harriet Roy and The Spark Arts for Children; Sarah Brigham, Caroline Barth and the Derby Theatre team; Carol Newman, Caroline Gallagher and Steve Powell of Inspire: Culture Learning & Libraries; Louise Regan; Laura White and Arts Council England; Jim Findley; Felix Findley (programme image); Dean Leivers (Programme); Sarah Richard; Karl Haynes; Fiona Buffini; Nonsuch Theatre; School of Art & Design, NTU; Karen Hammond; Emilie Rumney Scriven; Leesa Gazi; Visualscene, Leicester; Nottingham Community Wardrobe; Susan Croft & the Rose Bruford Archive; Challah bread courtesy of The Bakehouse, Sherwood; Nadja Smailagic; all the young people and adults whose experiences inspired and shaped the play; and anyone we might have inadvertently omitted.

An extensive JOMS Education Resource for teachers and families can be found at www.dragonbreaththeatre.com